Everybody Wins DC Background
When a child reads or is read to, he develops the skills needed to succeed in the classroom and beyond. That is why since 1995, Everybody Wins DC has been bringing reading programs directly to the children who need it the most. EWDC’s primary reading programs include:
- Power Readers, a one-on-one mentoring program;
- StoryTime, a read-aloud program that supports social-emotional learning and career development; and
- The Book Project, a free book distribution program to promote equitable access to books and literacy supports.

EWDC programs are currently offered virtually and on-site at schools and community partners across the Washington, DC Metro Area, reaching more than 1,000 students annually. EWDC works with individual volunteers and organizational partners, including law firms, media companies, government agencies, Congressional offices, and trade associations to support day-to-day program delivery.

Position Overview
EWDC seeks a qualified candidate to serve as a Program Manager. The position reports directly to the Director of Programs. The primary functions of the position center on the management and implementation of two of our programs, The Book Project and StoryTime. General duties include:
- Day-to-day coordination and management of Book Project and StoryTime activities
- Develop, implement, and track program measurements
- Collaborate with EWDC staff to identify opportunities for alignment across all EWDC programs
- Assist with planning and implementation of community engagement or service events
- Providing programmatic and operational support for Power Readers and other activities/events as needed

The Program Manager is a full-time position with a competitive salary and is eligible for EWDC’s robust benefits package, including health insurance, 401(K) and generous time off. This position is normally based in the EWDC main office and requires travel throughout the Washington Metro Area on a regular basis. However, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, this position currently maintains a hybrid schedule of remote work and in-person community and office-based activities. EWDC is planning for a full return to in-person work in September 2021 but may continue to allow for flexible work arrangements on a case-by-case basis. Successful completion of a background check is required for this position.
